

Specifications for Contracted Behavioral Health Services for Warren County Jail

Warren County Government is seeking to procure contracted behavioral health counseling and support services at the local jail correctional facility. The contracted services will include mental health assessments, crisis response and interaction, inmate therapy, staff training with mobile response and scheduling of treatment, before and after inmate release. These contracted services may include duties requested by the sheriff's administration and medical staff to accommodate the ever-changing needs of the inmate population.